It's the fourth in the series about Katie Chandler, a Magical Immune who works for Merlin at Magic, Spells Illusions Inc in New York. Except in this story

Katie has returned home to Cobb, a small town in Texas and the home of her family. This is because the wizard Owen, who cares for Katie, was put in a difficult situation in an earlier book having to choose between her and others - and he chose her. Katie decided to leave New York and her job so as not to cause a problem for Owen. After all, magical things are unlikely to follow her to Cobb as it's a very unmagical town. But now Katie's back home she starts noticing some odd things. Not only that, her mother seems to be seeing things that no-one else is - someone dressed up in strange robes doing odd dances outside the bank. Katie begins to wonder if Cobb is as free of magic as she previously thought and contacts Merlin to ask him about it. Merlin sends Sam the Gargoyle to check the town out - until Owen arrives. Katie and Owen have to investigate the goings-on together and they soon uncover a culprit closer to home, some unusual family traits and that Owen's arch-nemesis Idris is behind it all. Can Katie and Owen eject the magic from Cobb and can Katie keep her various family members out of trouble? The writing style of this book was great with events moving swiftly, characters appealing and quirky and a very slow-burn romance between Katie and Owen burning... slowly. The baddies weren't really bad, merely slightly naughty, and there were lots of opportunities for people to turn to a good path. This wasn't a dark book, the magic is a fun addition to the generally upbeat nature. I'll very much look forward to the next book in this series. Eher enttäuschend Von Amei Zont Ich habe die ersten Bände der Reihe (auf Deutsch) verschlungen und wollte unbedingt wissen, wie es in Katies Leben weitergeht - weswegen ich mir den 4. Band auf Englisch gekauft habe. Leider fand ich ihn eher langatmig und nervig, der "Zauber" der Vorgängerbände wollte sich nicht einstellen. Vielleicht lag es auch an der anderen Sprache, auf Englisch kann ich ein Buch nicht so "mitleben" wie auf Deutsch, da ich aber fters auch Bücher auf Englisch lese, kann ich ganz klar sagen: es gibt bessere. Das Potential war sicherlich da, die neue Umgebung in Texas (statt New York) war eine gute Abwechslung, aber das ewige Hinundher zwischen Katie und Owen wird nervig - bei dem Punkt sind sie doch eigentlich schon hinausgewesen - und der große Gegner Phelan Idris wird immer mehr zur Witzfigur. Vermisst habe ich auch ein wenig die bekannten Figuren (ihre Freundinnen und Kollegen aus New York), hier hätte ich auch gerne gewusst, wie es mit ihnen weitergeht. Aber vielleicht kommt das dann in Band 5... 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Katie Chandler und die Welt der Magie - super! Von KitKat Der momentan aktuellste Band der Serie rund um Katie Chandler und die Welt der Magie. Tolle Romane auch für Erwachsene, nicht zu kitschig, nicht zu schnulzig, nicht zu science-fiction, einfach nur total gut, romantisch, witzig - man will auf jeden Fall noch mehr! Wo bleibt der nächste Band??
